THE BISHOP'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

Last weekend, the combined parishes of Rockhampton newsletter began with the collation of our church happenings from across the city. I am grateful to Trish for her good work in bringing this project together and assisted by Gerard. I understand that in 1985, a task group recommended to my predecessor for a similar venture, which highlighted the many parish groups working together for the mission of the Church.

Last weekend, the Mass times for Ash Wednesday were published. In recent years, we were able to bring our young school people to Mass, but because of COVID, the blessed ashes will be taken from Mass after a commissioning ceremony for each school's designated person and similarly for our aged care facilities. The imposition of ashes will be similar to last year, because of COVID, whereby the ashes will be sprinkled upon us with the words of 'Turn away from sin and believe in the Gospel' spoken as a reminder that Lent is a time of turning towards God.

As we journey towards Lent, our four catechumens from across Rockhampton, who have been preparing to receive the Easter Sacraments, will be enrolled in the Diocesan Book of the Elect which records those who are Catechumens each year. This Rite of Election will take place Sunday 27th February at the 9am Mass at Holy Family. The Catechumens will undertake the Lenten journey and be offered prayers of strength and healing on the third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent. The fifth Sunday, 3rd April, our Catechumens are invited to the 9am Mass at Holy Family to complete their Catechumenal journey with the third set of prayers for strength and healing, which is known as the third scrutiny. At this Mass, I will also be praying for a group of young people who are being prepared for the three Sacraments of Initiation. These young people of Catechetical Age are being prepared by Gail Davis and they will receive all the Sacraments together with our Emmaus College young people on the eve of Pentecost. The Rites for our Catechumens, those adults who will be Baptised, Confirmed and receive first Holy Communion, will be during the Holy Saturday Vigil Mass on Saturday evening 16th April. Over the years as a priest working in a parish, I have always rejoiced at the Holy Saturday Vigil welcoming new Christians into the communion as a culmination of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). It was my joy when I arrived in the Diocese of the importance of a RCIA team that existed, supporting the Catechumens on their journey to the Easter Sacraments.

As directed by the combined Pastoral Councils of Rockhampton, I would hope that there will be formation for those who are interested in becoming team members for the RCIA for the year ahead for the City of Rockhampton. This will be after Easter, and so prepare for the next cycle of the RCIA.

Next week, I will be in Brisbane at the Episcopal Ordination of Bishop Elect Tim Norton svd, Auxiliary Bishop of Brisbane. Bishop Tim will join us, the Bishops of Queensland, at our annual meeting of the Bishops of Queensland in early March.

Yours in Christ

Bishop Michael McCarthy

PRIEST'S REFLECTION

In today's gospel, Jesus demands unconditional, unselfish, and generous love from his disciples, when he said: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly.

To be Jesus' disciple, we must share with others the mercy we have received from God. We must desist from tit for tat or to pay back violence with violence. We are called to imitate God's kindness, forgiveness, and compassion. "The command to love and pray for one's enemies "is the way to live like a Christian," which entails mirroring God's infinite love and mercy" says Pope Francis. Fr Matthias Ogwo

TRAINING FOR EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION TO THE SICK & HOUSEBOUND

Last year I held training for Eucharistic Ministers to take Holy Communion to our sick and housebound in the various healthcare facilities. Many of our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion attended, but some were unable to attend. I will be running similar training on Saturday, 19th March, from 10 to 11.30am in the Duhig Centre, West Street - after the Feast Day celebrations at St Joseph's Cathedral. This is a follow up for those who missed last year's training and for all taking communion to those at home or care facilities. I have included those who take Holy Communion to our nursing homes including Leinster Place, Bethany and the Range Village, and the Mater Hospital.

I look forward to spending this time with you. I would appreciate if you could let me know of your attendance via email: bishop@rok.catholic.net.au or my office Ph: 07 4887 3070.

Bishop Michael
