Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

Welcome to the combined newsletter of the parishes of Rockhampton and to read what is happening across our parishes.

I look forward to this Sunday, within the context of a worshipping community, enrolling four people who have been journeying with us towards the Easter Sacraments.

I will gather this week with the leadership team of CentacareCQ in their pre-Ash Wednesday reflection. Centacare ministries began many years ago when Fr Frank Gilbert and Sr Anne Marie Kinnane began a service of family counselling and caring for our people who needed support. From these beginnings CentacareCQ, through the leadership of Mr Robert Sims now, is present in many parts of our Diocese including Longreach, Emerald, Blackwater, Rockhampton, Yeppoon, Bundaberg, Gladstone, and Mackay. CentacareCQ are the arm of Catholic ministries to our Diocese assisting in the areas of NDIS, counselling, home support, indigenous connections, domestic violence support and being the presence of Christ in our community as they live out the great mandate of Christ, as we all do...when I was hungry, you gave me food, when I was sick, you visited me...

As we move into Lent this week, let us all hear the Gospel of the day as we all called into the season of prayer, fasting and good works.

The Sacramental programs have begun in the parishes of Rockhampton, and I invite our families to join with us in preparing our young people for the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Our coordinators, Beryl Mills and Anthony Green, and their teams will guide our families on this journey.

Yours in Christ

PRIEST'S REFLECTION

"A person's words flow out of what FILLS their heart ... "

These words of Jesus, friends, invite us to give prayerful consideration regarding what fills our heart. To what do we give focus in our lives?

Are we open to the Lord's light, love & wisdom as we endeavour to live lives of inner peace, hope and integrity?

Jesus reminds us today ... that it is that to which we give our attention which fills our heart & therefore we need to exercise due care & caution in this regard. What we focus on fills our heart & then what fills our heart is expressed in speech.

Do my words reflect the love of God .. the God who abides in my heart?

Fr Bill Senn

TRAINING FOR EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION TO THE SICK & HOUSEBOUND

Last year I held training for Eucharistic Ministers to take Holy Communion to our sick and housebound in the various healthcare facilities. Many of our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion attended, but some were unable to attend. I will be running similar training on Saturday, 19th March, from 10 to 11.30am in the Duhig Centre, West Street - after the Feast Day celebrations at St Joseph's Cathedral. This is a follow up for those who missed last year's training and for all taking communion to those at home or care facilities. I have included those who take Holy Communion to our nursing homes including Leinster Place, Bethany and the Range Village, and the Mater Hospital.

I look forward to spending this time with you. I would appreciate if you could let me know of your attendance via email:

bishop@rok.catholic.net.au or my office Ph: 07 4887 3070.

Bishop Michael

CHANEL COLLEGE PAST STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

We are up and running and looking for all our alumni to get in touch and add their names to our databases. Our goals are to reconnect past students with the College, as well as each other, and ensure the shared memory of the school is kept alive and passed on.

Interested in reunions, or becoming part of the Chanel College Community once again? Contact our Past Students Association

Co-ordinator Candice Morrison at candice\_morrison@rok.catholic.edu.au or phone the College on (07) 4973 4700 and leave your details.

SYNOD OF BISHOPS - EXTENSION

The local consultation period for has been extended! Submissions can now be received through the online portal until Sunday, March 13. Don't miss out on this chance to take part in a global conversation about the Catholic Church. How are we called to walk together as Christians? How can we listen to one another in making important decisions about our faith and our mission? Find out more and share your contribution at:
